

Trips, Slips and Falls Compensation Claims

A guide by PCB Solicitors

Slips, trips and falls are often the result of someone else's failure to keep a public place safe or maintained to the standard we would expect.

If you have been hurt because of such an accident you may be entitled to claim compensation. While such claims have received negative publicity, with newspapers complaining about the 'compensation culture', the reality is that an injury for a trip or slip can have serious impacts on the victim's ability to continue their normal day-to-day activity – sometimes even in the long term.

PCB Solicitors' friendly team of experts are on hand to advise if you have suffered such an injury. If you are not sure whether you might qualify, let us know the details – you might be surprised.

The sooner you contact us after your accident, the clearer the details will be in your head, enabling us to make the strongest case on your behalf.

Examples of slip or trip injuries might include:

- A fall on a poorly maintained public pavement or road
- Slipping on a wet floor in a shop or other premises
- Falling on public transport
- Falling in holes dug by utility companies

PCB Solicitors can act for you on a no win, no fee basis, removing the risk to you of taking your claim forward.
